

Introduction

Bermuda Powerlifting Association is committed to protecting the privacy of its members. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of personal information we collect, how it is used, and the steps taken to safeguard this information.

Information Collected

We may collect personal information such as names, contact details, date of birth, and mailing address.

Purpose of Data Collection

Personal information is collected for membership administration, communication purposes, and event coordination.

Data Security

We employ strict security measures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Access to this information is limited to authorized personnel only.

Third-Party Services

In some instances, such as competition results, we will share this data, including your name, date of birth, and competition results with third parties such as the International Powerlifting Federation (IPF).

Data Retention

Personal information will be retained for the duration of membership and for a reasonable period afterward to comply with legal requirements. Members have the right to request the removal of their data upon leaving the association.

Member Rights

Members have the right to access, correct, or request the removal of their personal information. Requests should be submitted in writing to Bermuda Powerlifting Association at info@bermudapowerlifting.com

Updates to Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically. Members will be notified of any changes, and the latest version will be available on our website.

Contact Information

For any inquiries regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of personal information, please contact us at info@bermudapowerlifting.com.

Consent

By joining the Bermuda Powerlifting Association, members consent to the collection and use of their personal information for the purposes outlined in this Policy, and acknowledge their understanding and acceptance of this Policy.
